Payment Options and Return Policy

Payment Options

I have done my best to keep the purchasing on my paintings as easy and secure as possible. I accept payments via Credit Card (through Pay Pal), personal check, and money order. You do not make online payments through my website, it is safer and more secure to pay online with PayPal.

Credit Cards:

I accept all major credit cards payments through PayPal. You can go to the PayPal website (www.paypal.com) and follow the instructions to "Send Money".

Here are the some brief Pay Pal instructions.

Please go to www.paypal.com and click on Send Money.

Enter your username and password if you have it. When prompted for the paypal account email or phone number, or name of the person to send money to, please type:
painterbynight@hotmail.com

When they ask about type of purchase, select "Goods (Other)".

Personal Check:

You may make payments to me via a personal check. Make checks out to Andy Hahn, and mail them to:

**Note: If you pay with a personal check, I may not start a custom painting, or ship a painting until the check clears. So just be aware of the possible delay.*

(if applicable) Altered or damaged pieces will not be accepted. Return payment will be sent when the painting is returned in the same condition that it was sent out.
